

Blue Balls receiver Dave Catterson (right) pulls in this catch, as Fox 40 Bills defender Jason Crawford tries to bat it down in action from an all-Burlington game in the 15th annual Bolla Bowl at L.B. Pearson High School. The Blue Balls won the A Division championship game 34-13. | photo by Graham Paine - Burlington Post

Ravens AA champs at 14th Bolla Bowl

The Burlington Ravens added the annual Bolla Bowl touch football tournament title to its list of accomplishments after beating the Hooligans 36-8 in the AA championship game at L.B. Pearson High School.

The 14th annual tournament, named after Frank Bolla, who died last month at the age of 85, is played each year on the day before the Super Bowl.

The Ravens are two-time defending AA champions in the Golden Horseshoe Touch Football Association.

In the A championship, the Blue Balls dumped the Fox40 Bills 34-13.